

Court Services and Offender Supervision Agency (CSOSA)
Faith-Based Initiative (FBI) Presents

Revive the Spirit 2009

“New Hopes and New Opportunities”

An Offender Empowerment Conference and Mentor Celebration

Saturday, February 21, 2009

8:30a.m. – 1:30p.m.

Foundry Church

1500- 16th Street, N.W.

Washington, D.C. 20036

The Third Annual Revive the Spirit Conference will focus on empowering offenders (mentees) to accept new hopes and new opportunities in their lives. Presentations and workshops will cover changes in public policy related to the Second Chance Act, the status of Federal Faith-Based Initiatives, higher education opportunities, family reunification, preparing for change, substance abuse prevention and much, much more!

The opening ceremony will include a keynote speaker and inspiring musical selections. The closing ceremony will honor the work of our mentors, mentees and Community Supervision Officers (CSO).

A continental breakfast and light lunch will be served

To register an offender for this event, please send an e-mail with the name, PDID# and CSO name to takia.jackson@csosa.gov by February 19, 2009. CSS staff should also register by sending your name to the same e-mail address after receiving approval through the chain of command.

To register a mentor, please contact the Cluster Coordinators by February 19, 2009 at:

Cluster A – Minister Kelly Wilkins
Cluster B – Evangelist Howard Moore
Cluster C – Rev. Karen Harrison

For more information, contact Hallem Williams, Program Analyst, CSOSA at 202-220-5306 or hallem.williams@csosa.gov.