

Student Non-Paid Internship Program

The Court Services and Offender Supervision Agency (CSOSA) offers students and volunteers excellent non-paid opportunities to enhance their professional work experience.

The primary goal of the CSOSA Student/Volunteer Non-Paid Internship Program is to provide relevant, meaningful, and professional workplace experiences for students or volunteers interested in pursuing careers related, but not limited, to criminal justice, probation, parole, professional counseling, or social services.

Based in our nation's capital, CSOSA is a federal agency with a distinctly local mission to effectively supervise adults under our jurisdiction to enhance public safety, reduce recidivism, support the fair administration of justice, and promote accountability, inclusion, and success through the implementation of evidence-based practices in close collaboration with our criminal justice partners and the community.

Interning at CSOSA is an invaluable opportunity that provides hands-on experience and hones skills that can enhance future academic and professional endeavors.

Eligibility Requirements

Students must be:

- enrolled at least half-time in an accredited high school, trade, technical, or vocational school; junior, community, or four-year college or university; or any other recognized accredited educational institution;
- at least 16 years old;
- in good standing academically and eligible to continue as an enrolled student;
- a United States citizen; and
- able to pass a non-sensitive background check.

Volunteers must be able to pass a non-sensitive background check and be accepted by a supervisor as a volunteer.

If you are interested in our mission and want to contribute to your academic institution and your field of study while enhancing your personal education experience, please mail your request along with a current resume to:
